

REQUEST FOR ASSISTANCE CHILDREN'S SPEECH AND LANGUAGE THERAPY

Child/Young Person's Details
Name: Address:	CHI number: Date of Birth:
	Parent/Carer main contact details Name: Relation to child/young person:
	Tel Number: Email address:
Post Code:
Name of Nursery/Early Years Centre/School	Additional contact details (if required) Name:
(and days/sessions attended):	Relation to child/young person: Tel Number:
	Email address:
Languages spoken at home:	Interpreter required? Yes/No
Speech and Language Therapists can work with families and professionals to support children/young people with their: Language (understanding and talking), Speech (how well a child can be understood), Social Communication (how a child interacts and plays with others), Voice, Fluency (stammering), and Eating, Drinking and Swallowing. Requests for assistance are best made by/with the person who is concerned. If you would like to discuss your request/concerns in more detail, please contact your local Speech and Language Therapist Reasons for this request for assistance – please give as much detail as possible children/young people with their: Language (understanding and talking), Speech (how we communication (how a child interacts and plays with one cating, Drinking and Swallowing. Requests for assistance are best made by/with the like to discuss your request/concerns in more deta Language Therapist Reasons for this request for assistance – please give 	well a child can be understood), Social others), Voice, Fluency (stammering), and e person who is concerned. If you would ail, please contact your local Speech and children/young people with their: Language (understanding and talking), Speech (how v Communication (how a child interacts and plays with o Eating, Drinking and Swallowing. Requests for assistance are best made by/with the like to discuss your request/concerns in more deta Language Therapist	well a child can be understood), Social others), Voice, Fluency (stammering), and e person who is concerned. If you would ail, please contact your local Speech and

What is the parent/carer/child/young person's main concern?

How is this affecting the child/young person at home?

What things have been tried already to support the child/young person at home? Did any of these strategies help?
How is this affecting the child/young person in their	educational setting?
What things have been tried already to support the Did any of these strategies help?	child/young person in their educational setting?
What support are you are hoping SLT can provide following this request for assistance?
Additional Information
Has the child/young person been highlighted to SLT before? Yes/No
Date of previous contact: What has changed since the child/young person was last seen?
Any other useful information about the child/young person? e.g. existing medical conditions/additional support needs/family history/social circumstances.
Are you requesting assistance from any other services at this time? If so, please give details.
Names of other professionals /support services involved:
Requester details and parent/carer consent
Name:	Address:
Job title:	Email address:
Date of request:	Contact number:
Do you have the necessary parent/carer consent to	o make this request for assistance? Yes/No

Please return this form to your local Speech and Language Therapy Department by secure email to: loth.sltcypwlrequestforassist@nhslothian.scot.nhs.uk

See www.lets-talk.scot.nhs.uk/early-years-professionals/request-for-slt-assistance for local contact details for paper requests.